

BASIC Calming

the

Crisis Class

Course Presented By:

Public Safety Psychology Group LLC

Troy Rodgers Psy.D.- Course Coordinator

505-888-5499

Cell: 505-250-8236

t.rodgers@pspg-nm.com

Upcoming 2026 Class Dates

January 13th 2026 (Santa Fe) SFPD Sponsor

January 22nd 2026 (Santa Fe) SFPD Sponsor

January 27th 2026 (Deming) HCA Sponsor

March 31st 2026 (Raton) HCA Sponsor

April 8th 2026 (Aztec) HCA Sponsor

May 6th 2026 (Gallup) HCA Sponsor

June 10th 2026 (Artesia) HCA Sponsor

Class Times

8am-5pm

Class Cost

$275+tax (per person)

Group discounts available

NMDPS Accreditation NM220307:
8-Hours of Instruction

8341 Washington St. NE. Albuquerque,
NM 87113

(One Block South of Alameda and one block west of Jefferson)

Course Topics & Exercises

- This Course is a brief interactive-based approach to the verbal-de-escalation training often seen in CIT Classes.
- Communication skills and the techniques that are effective in working with people to gain beneficial outcomes.
- Introduction to Abnormal Behavior and Verbal De-escalation Basics
 - Strategic Communication Skills
- Destigmatizing Mental Illness and Mental Illness 101
- Communicating with People in Crisis and Basic Active Listening Skills
- Identifying Community Resources for those in crisis
- Autism, Dementia, Alzheimer's, Developmental Disability, and TBI
- Psychotropic Medications
- Personality Disorders
- People In Crisis and The Steps to De-escalation
- And four (4) hours of exercises, live scenario training, and video analysis.

This class meets & exceeds the biennial requirements set for state of New Mexico Law Enforcement and Dispatch Personnel regarding Interactions with Persons with Mental Illness Training (formerly known as HB93).

REGISTER HERE

