BASIC SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICER COURSE

Crisis Intervention, Mental Health Awareness & Active Shooter Focus

COURSE TOPICS & EXERCISES

- Defining Violence in the School/Workplace
- The History of School Violence and Active Shooter Events in the United States
- Human Dynamics 101- Starting to Understand the Adolescent/Child Mind
- Psychological Risk Factors for Violence Sources of Workplace and School Violence as well as their Victims
- Child and Adolescent 101- Children and Adolescents in a Crisis
- Working with Students with Special Needs
- Case Conceptualization for the LEO, School Official, or HR Professional
- Threat Assessment 101-How to Assess Risk to Self and Others and How to Articulate Dangerousness to Others.
- Interviewing and Behavioral Analysis
- Research Review on Active Shooters
- Basic Verbal De-Escalation for School Resource Officers
- General, School, and Workplace Violence Prevention and threat Mitigation
- Stalking, Erotomania, and Prominent Individual Infatuation
- Common Characteristics and Mental Health Struggles for the School/Workplace Shooter
- Targeted Violence Prevention, Target Hardening, TOADS, and Putting Up TREES
- The Coordinated Response to the Shooting- Survival in the Midst of an Event
- Recovering from and Active Shooter Event, Taking Care of Your People, and Civil Liability
- Over 10 hours of scenario learning and table top exercise.

COURSE OVERVIEW

This comprehensive course is designed for school resources officers, law enforcement professionals and other public safety personnel. Participants will gain critical knowledge and practical skills to better understand behavioral indicators, asses risk, and respond effectively to crises in school and community settings.

Class Dates

Class Times
8am-5pm each day

Class Cost
$850+tax (per person)
Group discounts available

COURSE PRESENTED BY:

Public Safety Psychology Group LLC

Troy Rodgers Psy.D. – Course Coordinator

Office: 505-888-5499
Cell: 505-250-8236

t.rodgers@pspg-nm.com

REGISTER HERE

Office Location

8341 Washington St. NE.
Albuquerque, NM 87113
(One Block South of Alameda and one block west of Jefferson)