Patrol Response to CNT Situations Overview

The Patrol Response to CNT Situations Class is designed to be an interactive two-day, 16-hour class, which addresses basic verbal de-escalation skills from the perspective of a field officer responding to a situation that is likely to require a CNT response. It is designed for sworn field officers. During the course, participants will gain knowledge regarding crises and how people respond or behave in crisis. The concept of mental illness and its effect on the verbal interaction will be addressed as well. SWAT and tactical awareness and considerations are an integral aspect of the learning process. Hands on exercises enhance the classroom activities and participants are expected to actively engage in over 6 hours of live scenario situations. The class is designed to be exciting and interactive with a simple goal of improving the verbal skill-set of the attendees

Basic CNT Class Overview

The Basic Crisis Negotiations Class (BCNT) is designed to be an interactive five-day, 40-hour class, which addresses advanced verbal de-escalation skills from the perspective of a hostage negotiator. It is designed for sworn law enforcement officers with a minimum of three years of experience. During the course of the week-long class, participants will gain knowledge regarding crises and how people respond or behave in crisis. The concept of mental illness and its effect on the verbal interaction will be addressed as well. SWAT and tactical awareness and considerations are an integral aspect of the learning process. Hands on exercises enhance the classroom activities and participants are expected to actively engage in over 12 hours of live scenario situations. The class is designed to be exciting and interactive with a simple goal of improving the verbal skill-set of the attendees.

Advanced CNT Class Overview

It is our belief that negotiation skills are a perishable skill so continued practice is essential to becoming a skilled negotiator in the long-term. The Advanced Crisis Negotiations Class (ACNT) is designed to build on the concepts learned in BCNT and advance them. It is an interactive five-day, 40-hour class, which furthers the skill-set of the advanced negotiator. It is designed for sworn law enforcement officers with a minimum of five years of experience. During the course participants are expected to actively engage in over 16 hours of live scenario situations as well as participate in a mini SWAT school.
